2010*

What is an NCCJ Youth Ambassador?

A NCCJ Youth Ambassador is a leader who is an advocate and representative for change. This person models NCCJ's mission to fight bias, bigotry and racism. An ambassador is involved with NCCJ year-round and participates in leadership training in order to serve as facilitators for events such as the Youth Leadership Conference, ANYTOWN, and Leaders For Tomorrow.

To be eligible to apply for this program, you must be an ANYTOWN Graduate and you must not have graduated from high school.
