

Model Invocation

Let us offer thanks for the bounty of our universe. Let us celebrate the diversity of spirit and creation.

No two snowflakes, blades of grass, or flowers are the same. No man, woman or child is exactly alike.

Let us learn to appreciate the richness of our world bestowed with a multitude of religions, cultures and nations.

Let us continue our efforts to pursue justice and opportunity for all.

Let us work in harmony for the betterment of our community.

Let us offer thanks for the food we receive, when many walk in hunger.

Let us offer thanks for the bounty of our lives.
