

Brotherhood/Sisterhood Citation Award

About the Award

Since 1964, NCCJ has honored outstanding citizens who have improved our community with the Brotherhood/Sisterhood Citation Award. The 2022 award will be presented at the 56th Annual Citation Award Dinner in November 2022 (date TBA.)

To identify deserving candidates, NCCJ welcomes nominations from across the Triad, especially Greensboro and High Point. All nomination forms must be received by 5 pm on Monday, March 21, 2022. Incomplete nomination forms will not be considered. NCCJ's Citation Award Selection Committee will meet to consider all nominations. In April, NCCJ's Board of Directors will select the honoree from the nominees presented to them by the Selection Committee. Nominators will be notified shortly thereafter.

Read carefully: NCCJ's mission is to build a compassionate and just community free of bias, bigotry, and racism. NCCJ does not advocate for any group or philosophy. We work to build mutual respect among all people—regardless of race, faith, culture, sexual orientation, gender, or socioeconomic background. Citation Award nominees must model these values in all aspects of their lives.

Eligibility for the Award

All residents of the Piedmont Triad are eligible for nomination, with the following provisions and exclusions:

1. The nominee may not have previously been a Citation Award honoree in the Piedmont Triad (please see our website for a full list of previous honorees);
2. If a nominee has been honored with the Citation Award in another community, only their work in the Piedmont Triad will be considered for this award;
3. The nominee may not hold elective office except in cases when a) the individual's term will be completed within the year, b) they have not filed for any elective office, and c) filing deadlines have closed;
4. Current NCCJ board members are generally not eligible for the Citation Award (however, in special circumstances the Selection Committee may accept nominations of current board members); and
5. Submissions will remain "active nominations" for a period of 3 years. You may submit additional supporting materials to enhance an application packet first submitted in the past 3 years.
